JOIN US FOR OUR 2018-2019 SEASON

This season marks a significant milestone for the Free Concert Series in the Richard Bradshaw Amphitheatre as we hit 1,000 concerts and beyond! Since its inception in 2006, the Free Concert Series has invited one and all into the Four Seasons Centre for the Performing Arts to experience the incomparable power of live performance. Over the years, we’ve presented a staggering array of artists from different disciplines and genres, from the thundering taiko drums of Japan to the soulful Persian kamanche; international opera luminaries to young piano prodigies; and Grammy Award-winning jazz virtuosos to powerful indigenous voices.

WORLD MUSIC SERIES
The richness of Toronto’s cultural fabric is reflected in rhythms and harmonies from around the globe.

DANCE SERIES
The expressive power of the human body is celebrated in a colourful variety of traditions.

JAZZ SERIES
An exciting new generation of stars takes its place alongside Canadian and international jazz legends.

VOCAL SERIES
The glory of the human voice is showcased through art song and opera across the ages.

CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES
From intimate duos to chamber orchestras, artists of all ages come together in dynamic collaborations.

PIANO VIRTUOSO SERIES
Brilliant pianists from across Canada and around the world explore a richly varied repertoire.

With this breadth of diversity at our core, it’s fitting that the stunning wall of glass surrounding the amphitheatre provides a window into one of the world’s most multicultural cities. The performances fuse with the backdrop of daily life in Toronto to produce a kaleidoscope of sound and colour where art reflects life and vice versa.

I invite you to join us as we cross into quadruple digits, celebrating our rich legacy and looking ahead to the many exhilarating concerts in our future.
