

N.D.G. alternative schools to make way for Français Plus primary

The English Montreal School Board is recommending Focus and Outreach relocate to James Lyng in St-Henri.

MONTREAL GAZETTE Updated: October 25, 2018

A new Français Plus primary school is to open at 4850 Coronation Ave. for the 2019-20 academic year. JOHN MAHONEY / MONTREAL GAZETTE

Saying its west-end elementary schools are “bursting at the seams in terms of enrolment,” the English Montreal School Board says it plans to open a new

Français Plus primary school at 4850 Coronation Ave. for the 2019-20 academic year.

The site is occupied by the Focus and Outreach alternative high schools, and the EMSB's long-range planning committee is recommending that their populations relocate to James Lyng High School in St-Henri.

The board made the announcement in its online newsletter this week.

The proposal will now be the subject of a consultation and be re-examined at a special board meeting to be scheduled for early January.

RELATED

James Lyng High: School of rock, rap and urban arts

(<https://montrealgazette.com/entertainment/music/james-lyng-school-of-rock-rap-and-urban-arts>)

TRENDING IN CANADA

0.

Opinion: Here's a pipeline route to tidewater Canada has never considered – but...

Opinion: Shipping oil across Hudson Bay over the top of Quebec and Newfoundland to the East Coast could be an option