POLICY STATEMENT

1. In general, no motor vehicle driven or owned by a student may be parked on school grounds during school hours; however, under particular circumstances, the school administration may extend this parking privilege to certain students.
2. In the event of granting such permission, school administrations should be satisfied that the student has:
 - a. provided the school with a photocopy of the vehicle's registration certificate as well as a copy of the student's driver's license, to be verified by the school against the original documents;
 - b. understood that he/she must share in the snow-clearing expenses incurred by the staff.
