

Culture & Citizenship in Quebec (CCQ)

This course will provide students with a multitude of opportunities to explore their emerging sense of identity in juxtaposition to the rich socio-cultural tapestry of Quebec society. In addition, students will learn about socialization, relationships in adolescence, the integration of public and private spaces, civil participation, parameters of citizenship, and a variety of social issues. This course offers opportunities to think about, discuss, and form an educated stance on various ethical issues.

Topics will be thematically connected to:

- Exploration of features of the ‘dimensions of identity’ (QEP, p. 30).
- Critical examination of ‘social issues’ (QEP, p.30).
- Exploration of ‘collective space and public space’ (QEP, 31, 32).
