The aim of this course is to develop and to perfect students' reading, writing and oral presentation skills and to allow students to communicate clearly and effectively in a variety of transactional forms. As well, the objective is to foster students' appreciation of literature, to encourage them to express their personal thoughts and beliefs in a creative and reflective manner. In addition, it provides them with techniques to organize their thoughts clearly and cohesively.

LATE POLICY

Students will be granted one day without penalty. As of the second day, 5% of the grade will be deducted per day late. No late assignments will be accepted for grading after the instructor has returned the given assignment to students who submitted.
