

Music Theatre Workshop JCA

Musical Directors : Maria Dimantis, BMus & Dimitris Ilias, B.F.A., D.A.M.P.S.

Over the course of the last 26 years, the Music Theatre workshop pioneered by opera singers Maria Diamantis and Dimitri Ilias has enjoyed remarkable success. Targeted at children in grades 3 to 6, workshop sessions will be held during lunch, accommodating a minimum of 30 and a maximum of 50 students. An in-person concert is scheduled for May 2023.

Key facets of the workshop encompass:

1. Instruction in singing technique, vocal projection, breathing, and voice protection tailored for children.
2. Diverse performances by the vocal workshop at various events, including school concerts and charitable functions.
3. The extensive choir repertoire facilitates impromptu performances on radio, television, and other media platforms, showcasing the school's talent.
4. Students gain insights into the value and rewards derived from diligence and discipline.
5. Fostering self-esteem, children revel in being part of a group that performs regularly.
6. Workshop participants engage in teamwork and collaboration with peers from other classes.
7. This year's JCA production is set to be "Beauty and the Beast."

The comprehensive year-long program is priced at $30 per student, with sessions every Friday commencing October 27, 2023. Choreography sessions will be integrated into rehearsals for the final concert. Access our vocal workshop's video-info link: <https://youtu.be/--Hw8M3-q8>
