Every ticket can help save a life.

Heart attacks, cardiac arrest and stroke can strike without warning. For half of us, it's not "if" but "when" we'll be hit by heart conditions, stroke, or related dementia. Thankfully, Heart & Stroke has identified the most critical issues to solve and are on the verge of significant breakthroughs to combat the impact of heart conditions and stroke.

Research

Accelerate research breakthroughs to improve lives by repairing damaged hearts and minimizing the debilitating effects of strokes.

Partnerships

Enable partnerships with hospitals, universities, and health institutes to close the gaps in care that can lead to poor health outcomes.

Funding

Ensure funding for promising heart disease and stroke research is not interrupted, given serious new risks due to COVID-19.
