28.4 Code of Ethics

For ease of reference, the following Code of Ethics was adopted by Council under article 11.1.1 (Council to adopt Code of Ethics)

PREAMBLE

The dental profession holds a special place of trust within society. As a result, society extends opportunities and privileges to the profession that are not available to the public at large. In return, the profession makes a commitment that its members will adhere to high standards of clinical expertise and ethical conduct.

The ethical behaviour of dentists is one of the most important factors in the promotion of quality dental care and recognition of dentists as professionals.

Continued public trust in the dental profession and in the principle of profession-led self-regulation is dependent on the commitment of individual dentists to high standards of ethical conduct.

Ethical behaviour is the foundation of the public's continuing trust in the effectiveness of self-regulation.

PRINCIPLES

The following are the primary ethical principles for the practice of dentistry; they are based on the core ethical values of integrity, fairness, beneficence, compassion and respect for patient autonomy.
